Press Release

No one is indifferent to the charms of the City of Light. Noisy and disorderly for some, the centre of the world for others, Paris is a city that would take a lifetime, perhaps even several, to get to know through and through. And it is in spring, when its terraces are open and its parks are full of happy strollers, that we enjoy the city the most, perched on rooftops, on board a bateau-mouche or on bicycles along the Seine. Our artists are not insensitive to its charms either; as Humphrey Bogart famously said in Casablanca, we will always have Paris.
